HARRINGTON, the man who is likely to be hung at an early day in Storey county, is credited with doing a great many smart things in his life. He is said to be one of the smartest criminals ever arrested in the State, and unless the officers keep a sharp watch upon his actions he may yet escape his approaching doom. In regard to his ingenuity we give an extract from the Chronicle relative to a trick he attempted while an inmate of the prison at Carson. About two years ago he was working in the bootmaker's department and succeeded in manufac-turing a boot which he must have expectwould be of considerable use to him on future occasions. In the shank was a hollow space, in which he inserted a fine saw and file, both of which had evidently been used, for one morning the Warden happening to strike his hand against one of the bolts of the cell, found that the head came off, being nothing but wax. Harrington had cut away the heads of several bolts and made a good imitation in wax, which he covered with ampblack to give them the appearance of iron. When an opportunity of escape presented itself he expected to drive the bolt out and then make his exit, probably wearing the same boots in which he had so deftly concealed the file and saw. The plot having been discovered be was removed to another cell, and the boots which excited suspicion on socount of their appearance, were ripped

Last evening was the time for th Church & Jones social, and the grace and beauty of Carson were in attendance.

THE Pebruary term of the United States District Court will commence in Carson to-morrow.

At last the Third House is about to be organized with all due form and ceremony. By reference to our Legislative columns it will be seen that the use of the Senate Chamber has been granted for next Tuesday evening, and there and then an organization will be effected. In consequence of the immense crowd of strangers and politicians who are expected to be present, the first ten rows of seats will be reserved for ladies, and they are respectfully invited to be present. After due deliberation and a great deal of argument, the Governor's message has been selected as the theme for the discussion, and the different parts of this will be presented in an able and masterly manner. Cicero will not be there, nor Demosthenes, nor Daniel Webster himself, but others will do justice to the subjects in detail, and rhetoric and argument will predominate on the occasion. Bis-marck and Gladstone, Tilden and Hayes have been invited to be present, but the distance from Carson to London and Berlin will preclude the two former from attending. The latter gentlemen are expected, and their presence will add materially to the interest of the proceedings.

Since the publication of last month's report one of those whose name appears above has been laid tenderly away, in the "sleep that knows no waking," in this world of ours. The Master, to whose holy care he is now assigned, must have a loving welcome to give him whose earthly tasks were ever so faithfully performed; and in that heavenly life may he be perfected in all that he gave such promise of attaining, had his earthly days been prolonged. "Suffer little children to come unto me. and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of

The following is the vote whereby the Warden bill was yesterday passed in the House: Ayes-Allen, Atchinson, Babcock, Bailey, Botsford, Buckingham, Cavanaugh, Cleaver, Coburn, Edson, Everett, Gladding, Grey, Hawkes, Howard of Storey, Kennedy, McIntosh, Moore of Elko, Nichols, Parker, Rooker, Sargent, Sawtelle, Shakespeare, Shoemaker, Tolley.—26. Noes—Beer, Bell, Bowmer, Brann, Caldwell, Coulter, Hammand, Harris, Howard of Humboldt, Lowrey, Mills, Moore of Lincoln. Powers, Rockill, Rule, Smith of Eureka. Smith of Storey, Steele, Stewart, Trousdale, Tomb, Wright and Speaker. -23.

The State Prison bill was yesterday passed in the House after a somewhat extended and exciting debate. The interest in this bill since its introduction has been very great, and yesterday the lobby was literally iammed with spectators. A large number of ladies were seated among the members, and these all exhibited great interest in the proceedings. The vote will be found elsewhere in the paper. After the same was announced, notice of a motion to reconsider was given by Stewart, and in consequence another discussion may be on the boards for to-morrow.

The Mexican Veterans had a meeting last evening in the Senate Chamber, and decided to have a grand ball on the 22nd of February. In addition to being the anniversary of Washington's birthday, this will also be the 31st anniversary of the battle of Buena Vista. Messrs. Bollen, Zabriskie, Patterson, Rooker, Shepherd and Moore, were appointed as a committee to make all the neces arrangements for the occasion, and a successful ball will be offered by the Veterans.

The long promised fair at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, is annnounced for Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. The ladies of the congregation have been very active in preparing for the occasion, and a very enjoyable time may be expected.

The shooting match which was to have come off yesterday in Carson between Bogardus and Daly, will take place at Oakland Park in San Francisco, to-day. Two hundred and fifty dollars a side is the amount to be gained.

The Chinese New Year will begin on the 13th inst. Already Chinatown is preparing for the occasion, and such a celebration will occur as is seldom known in Carson. Last year being a leap year, the usual order is somewhat changed.

Wz acknowledge the receipt of a map of Virginia City from Mr. W. Rose. The typographical appearance is excellent, and the map is a valuable one of its kind.

THE report of the State Treasurer has been received. It will be examined in detail in a few days. Also the report of the Capitol Commiss

The Ormsby House social will be given to morrow evening.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The Electoral Commission is holding daily sessions on the Florida election case. The presiding Justice on being asked, "What is the case of Florida?" replied that it consisted of three certificates with accompanying papers and objections. These papers are very numerous, and most of them have been prepared with labor and care. Every law point in relation thereto is being accurately discussed, and speech making has become the main feature of the Commission. It is not expected that a conclusion will be reached for some time to come.

The President is desirous that his views on the finance question should be accurately known. They have been summarized under a few heads somewhat as follows: First-In his opinion the time for specie payment has come, and that can be effected within a very short time. He desires to put his opinion on record before the expiration of his term shall be reached. Second-Under this proposition he does not anticipate that there will be a great demand for gold, since currency holders could get Government gold bonds for the same, at an interest of four per cent. Third—One hundred million dollars worth of such bonds is urged. These would supply the market demand, but more might weaken the project. Fourth-He believes that the price of gold will continue to go lower, and that it will soon be almost on a par with currency. He presents a list of figures by which it is proved that there is an increasing trade balance in our favor. 'Fifth-He shows that the imports of specie for the last six months of last year were almost $700,000 more than the exports in the same period, thus proving that the supply of gold in this country is becoming monthly much

Now that Davis has been elected United States Senator, the question as to his successor is being largely discussed. Both Democrats and Republicans are urging the claims of their respective candidates, but as yet nothing definite has been done. The friends of Trumbull are urging his name for the position, and others are urging the name of Judge C. Campbell of Louisiana. This latter gentleman had a seat on the Supreme Bench before the war, but when his native State, Alabama, seceded his resignation was tendered. Davis will not resign, it is said by the Democrats, until after the inauguration of the next President, and hence his successor will be appointed by Hayes or Tilden. John F. Chamberlain, the well known sporting man of New York. has gone into voluntary bankruptev. and Edward Dyas, the actor and father of Ada Dyas of the same city. has died.

The Louisiana investigation still continues. A Republican lawyer connected with the case explains the matter as follows: "We cannot at present give our side of the Louisiana bribery story. The purpose of the Democratic committee under Dudley Field's leadership is to conceal the Republican side of the case, and possibly, the Democrats hope to prevent its being made public at any time. All I can say is that it is a damnable conspiracy, and in a few days we shall be able to prove this to the satisfaction of every honest man in this country. Meanwhile, tell the people of the country not to be dis turbed. The whole story is a conspiracy of perjured and indicted thieves and scoundrels, and when the truth is told the public will be startled."

The President is about to send a message to Congress on the specie resumption scheme. It has already been submitted to the Cabinet for their approval. The message will urge upon Congress the necessity of returning to specie payment at once. and not leave the matter until the time fixed by law.

Governor Grover has tendered his resignation as Governor of Oregon. As there is no Lieutenant Governor in that State, the office now reverts to the Secretary of State. This latter official has been formally inaugurated, and the oath of office has been administered by the Chief Justice. Grover's term would have expired in the month of September.

The funeral of Mrs. Bryant was held last evening, and the remains were taken to Santa Rosa, California, for burial.
